Pei-p'ing, 30 November (NCNA) -- The First Pei-p'ing Women's All-Circles Delegates Conference was held from 26 to 29 November.

The conference's proceedings included: (1) report of the past activities of the Preparatory Committee, Pei-p'ing Democratic Women's League by its Chairman, Chang Hsiao-mei (Ueda: 3065, 4623, 4971); (2) announcement of the establishment of the Pei-p'ing Democratic Women's League; (3) passing of the draft constitution for the league; (4) election of 57 members to the Executive Committee of the league; (5) appointment of delegates to the Asian Women's Delegates Conference; (6) sending greetings to Chairman Mao and the Chairman of the All-China Democratic Women's Federation, Tsai Ch'ang; (7) a speech by Tang Ch'ao-li (12223, 11467, 10073), Deputy Chairman, All-China Democratic Women's Federation; and (8) sending of a protest of Nehru over the recent execution of 30 Indian peasant leaders.

The following were named to represent Pei-p'ing women at the coming Asian Women's Delegates Conference:

Chang Hsiao-mei, Yang Tsao-hsin (3123, 12004, 4376), Liu Ch'ing-yang (840, 6290, 5123), Jui Chieh-ch'ung (13023, 6532, 359), Li Cho-pao (4725, 1005, 2407), and P'u Chieh-hsin (6169, 6532, 359). P'eng Tzu-kang (3113, 2262, 2621) was appointed as the alternate delegate.

Chairman Chang's report included the following information:

According to an incomplete survey, there are now 4,880 women handicraft workers and shop workers in Pei-p'ing. Of that total, 3,990, or 81 percent, are labor-union members.

There are 844 women in various factories holding the office of labor-union subcommittee chief, and 156 women hold the positions of labor-union committee chiefs or higher offices.

Members of the Preparatory Committee, Pei-p'ing Women's League have, in the past months, enlisted 209 families to take up home industry, making embroidered tablecloths, bedspreads, etc.

More than 602 women participated in the infant-care program. Before the liberation, there were 11 nurseries, but now there are 43 which care for 1,617 babies and children.

More women should participate in the united effort to clean up reactionary and subversive elements from the city.
